Kay, It is difficult to know what someone already has so if you have this maybe someone else doesn't.

Family No. 493 - Monroe Co., MS History Book, article written by Joel T. Howell, list children of John Howell (b. VA 1750/5, d. Laurens Co. SC c1810) as Unnamed son b. 1783, Elijah lived Blount Co. AL, Unnamed dau. b. 1787, John Howell b. 1788 moved to Gwinnett Co. GA and then to Cleburne Co. AL, Elizabeth, Abraham b. 1792 m. Sarah Ann Andrews settled Monroe Co. MS, Tempe m. James Chism, Elias, Rebecca, Mansell b. 1804 lived Monroe Co. MS, Phoebe, Wilson b. 1806 settled Cherokee Co. AL.

My family: Lewis Howell is also listed in the book but the two families do not seem to be related. Children of Lewis Howell (wife unknown): Mary Ann Howell m. Archibald Campbell (my line), Bennett, Ballard, Rufus R., William, James, Needham, Wiley, John R. They all lived Monroe Co. MS and Dallas Co., AL and Perry Co., AL. Lewis Howell d. 1840. Archibald and Mary Ann (Howell) Campbell moved to Cass Co. TX.

Lewis Howell was the son of John Howell of Wayne Co. NC.

John Howell was born 1753 died 1843 in Wayne Co. NC.

Children of John Howell (wife unknown): Lewis, David, Alice m. Henry Cheek, Ira E. m. Cintha Robards, Nancy m. Keaton.

I believe John Howell's father to be Joshua Howell d. 1799 Wayne Co. NC.

Could John Howell's wife be Isabell Jernigan, Daughter of David Jernigan?
Could Lewis Howell's wife be a Raiford?

Jim,

Would you please look in the book below and see if there is a Burrell HOWELL. He m 1) Mary Ann REID. Their dau was Lurana Elizabeth HOWELL, b 4

Feb 1850, Pike Co., MS; d 8 Sep 1910, Walthall Co., MS. She m Asa Denson

THORNHILL abt 1869. Burrell HOWELL was in Pike Co., MS census in 1840 as was a James T. HOWELL, Sr. Some notes I questions I have on Burrell HOWELL are: Could his father have been Solomon HOWELL of Bulloch Co., GA?

Was

Burrell in Marion Co., AL in 1860?

I really appreciate your offer of help.

I have some HOLMAN data I got off of a CD if you don't have it.
Thanks for sending the marriages via snail mail. I have several marriage and census
CD's. Let me know if I can look up someone for you or others.

Dear Members,

Is there a 1860 and 1870 Census
Index of MS? I have looked through our local libraries & haven't found them there or available at the genealogical publications for sale.

I am trying to pinpoint my HOWELL family for these years & don't want to run the whole census. Can you offer a solution? Do you know of a library that I might write and get these Howell pages copied?

Thank you -

(Exhibit A to, and part of, attached petition)

In the matter of the last Will) and Testament of Phillip Howell,) Sr., deceased.

There coming on to be heard the petition of C. F. Howell for the probate and record of the last Will and testament of Phillip Howell, Sr., deceased, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that said Phillip Howell, Sr., died on the 18th day of January, 1875; that at the time of making said last Will and Testament, and on the 24th day of December, 1874, the said Phillip Howell, Sr., was over the age of twenty-one years and of sound and disposing mind and memory and in every way capacitated to legally execute said last Will and Testament; that the instrument offered as the last Will and Testament of the said Phillip Howell, Sr., was, by the said Phillip Howell, Sr., at the time of executing same, declared and published to be his true last Will and Testament in the presence of three witnesses and the said testator thereupon signed same in the presence of said three witnesses, each of whom signed same, at the request and in the presence of said testator and in the presence of each other, as subscribing witnesses thereto, as is shown by the separate affidavits of John W. Fairley and William Fairley, two of said subscribing witnesses, on file in this cause; that said instrument of writing, hereinabove referred to, is the true last Will and Testament of said Phillip Howell, Sr., deceased and same ought to be admitted to probate and recorded as directed by law; and that letters testamentary issue to the said C. F. Howell and no bond be required of him as executor of said last Will and Testament:

It is, therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed that said instrument of writing purporting to be and herein propounded as the last Will and Testament of said Phillip Howell, Sr., deceased, be, and the same is hereby recognized, established and decreed to be the true last Will and Testament of said decedent and as such admitted to probate; that the Clerk of this Court record same in the Record of Wills of Jackson County; and said C. F. Howell be, and he is hereby, appointed executor of said last Will and Testament without bond and that letters testamentary issue to the said C. F. Howell as such executor.

Done and decreed, by the Clerk in vacation, this 2nd day of August, A. D. 1905.

ge 12A - Aberdeen Examiner, Aberdeen, Mississippi, Thursday, October 20, 1988

Howell's book includes Aberdeen

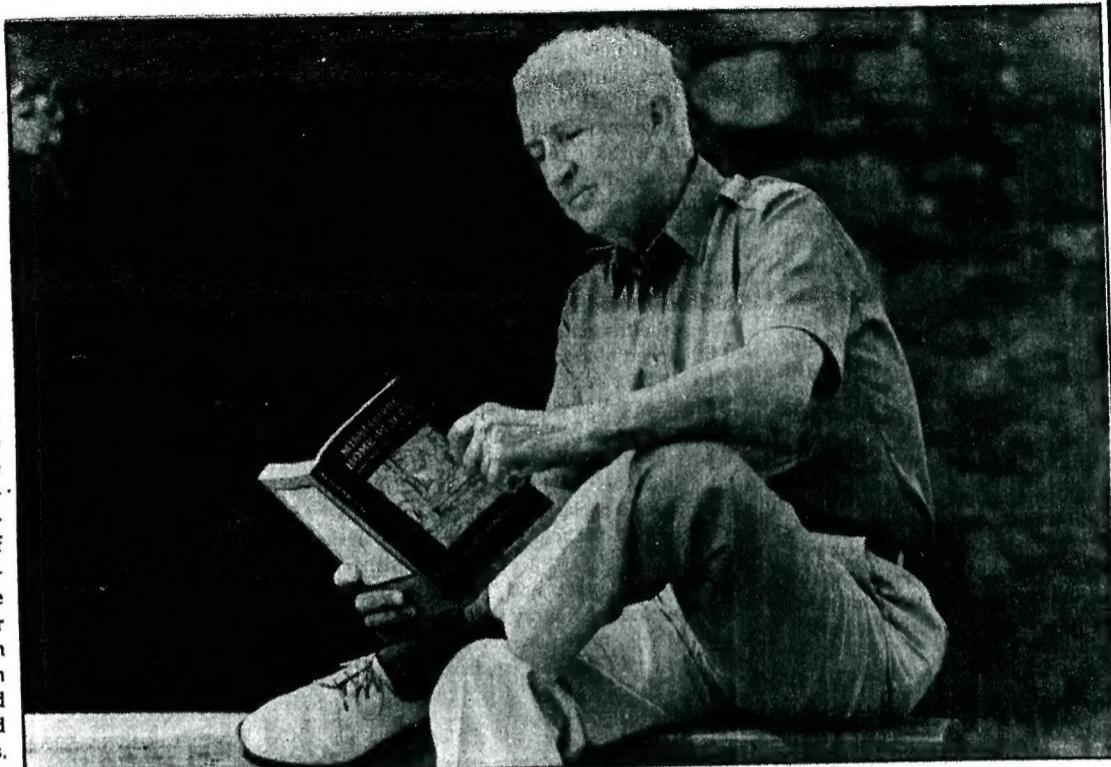

Elmo Howell spent three years sifting down abandoned plantation houses, old sharecropper houses and familiar addresses before publishing Mississippi Home-Places: Tales on Literature and History.

Howell calls it a work of trivia, but the guidebook provides much more in little known facts. Opening the doors to the homes and motivations of Mississippi writers, it allows readers to visit with their literary neighbors from Vicksburg to Meridian and from Biloxi to Corinth.

Aberdeen is well represented in Howell's book and with ample illustration. Though he might have had more to cover the work of the eccentric "Hinda," antebellum poet wife of Reuben Davis, he is generous with Davis himself, author of collections of Mississippi and Mississippians, and quotes a cogent passage which Davis sums up the character of the old-time Mississippian: "A man ought to fear God, and mind his own business. He should be respectful and courteous to all women; he should be his friends and hate his enemies. He should eat when he was hungry, drink when he was thirsty, dance when he was merry, vote for the candidate he liked best, and knock on any man who questioned his right to these privileges."

"Gregg-Hamilton" appears with its intriguing facade of front veranda, home of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Milton, wife of poet Charles Hamilton. Hamilton was a surprisingly gifted personage, whose longer tenure as clergyman of St. John's Church (1931-42), politician (House of Representatives in Jackson 1940-1944), lecturer and author, with an extended bibliography as poet. His best known work, Mississippi, I Love You, is a dissertation of the geography of the state: Alligator, Bobo, Hushpuckena, Indotte, Anguilla, Whynot, Hot ee.

Many people in Aberdeen are not aware of the strange history of St. John's Episcopal Church. It was built in 1852 by a nationally famous Mississippi author, Joseph Holt Ingraham, whose many-faceted genius included a knack for religion and architecture, as well as authorship. He was sent to St. John's Mission in 1841, and seeing the need, rolled up his sleeves and built a church, "with the aid of two young men and nine AREA AUTHOR - Aberdeen is prominently featured in Elmo Howell's new book Mississippi Home Places. The book is concerned with Mississippi authors and their homes and is a guidebook to the homes of many of the state's literary and historical figures. slaves." The end of Ingraham's life was tragic and equivocal. Just before the war, he shot himself in Christ Church in Holly Springs, where he was serving as rector.

The author of Mississippi Home Places describes his introduction to another Aberdeen author, S.J. Jonas. A few years ago in conversation with Miss Lucille Peacock, a beloved and familiar figure to Monroe County, he was asked by Miss Peacock if he knew how Aberdeen got into Gone With the Wind. He professed ignorance, and Miss Peacock turned to "the thirtieth chapter of the third book" of that novel and read two stanzas from Jonas's poem, "Lines Written on the Back of a Confederate Note." Mr. Howell recounts the story of that poem engraved on the back of the poet's imposing monument in Odd Fellows Rest Cemetery in Aberdeen. And for good measure, he throws in an intriguing anecdote about President Abraham Lincoln, who issued a pass for Jonas and two of his brothers (all Confederate soldiers) through Federal lines to visit their sick father in Springfield, Illinois.

The appeal of Howell's book rests to a large extent on any easy style and the charm of forgotten trivia — like the window bars still in place in the basement of "Gregg-Hamilton," going back to the days when that house was used as a prison for Yankee soldiers.

Mississippi Home Places is not the last word on Mississippi history or literature but it does combine the two effectively and it will tantalize and please the book lover, especially one who loves to wander.

Written by retired Memphis State University literature professor, this literary tourist guide explores 57 "homeplaces" where writers have lived.

Howell is a graduate of The University of Mississippi and is a native of neighboring Itawamba County.

Snippets of poetry and lyricism grace the book throughout. And Howell's simple black and white photographs allow just a sense of the author's homeplace without revealing all.

Directions to the sites are clear and simply written for the traveler.

But what really sets the book apart is Howell's ability to shuttle between fiction and fact, past and present, creating a thick weave of literature and life.

Howell discovered the state through three years of joyful exploration during a retirement he describes as "dangerous because you can do anything you want."

"The state exists as a cultural whole," Howell writes. "But it has a cranky personality that takes a little time and trouble to get acquainted with."

"For those who like such company, the next step is the local library and vertical file, and a casual question passed around: Could you tell me if So-and-so's house still stands? Or: do you know if his people still live around here?"

The answers to Howell's questions are in Mississippi Home Places.

A copy of his book can be obtained from the author at 1000 N. Main, Aberdeen, MS 39002.
